KOPIPOL – Legal background

KOPIPOL - organization for collective management of rights of authors of scientific and technical works.

Created in the form of society in 1995 by representatives of Polish science and academics.

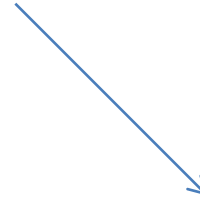

Approved and supervised by the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage.

Levies paid by producers and importers of copying devices (equipment levies) in Poland

On the basis of Article 20 of the Copyright Act of 1994 producers and importers of devices and carriers enabling copying audio, audiovisual, text and image works are obligated to pay to collective management organization acting to the benefit of authors, performers, producers of phonograms and videograms, and publishers, levies due from the sale of those devices and carriers.

Due to the Copyright Act – equipment levies are due at no more than 3% of the device's or carrier's retail price.

Consumers are being informed, that imposing levies on smartphones and tablets shall raise prices of these devices by 100 PLN (23 EUR).

It's easy to calculate, that imposing a levy in the amount of 1,5% should raise prices by:

7,50 PLN (1,70 EUR) for a smartphone with capacity of 4 GB costing 500 PLN

15 PLN (3,40 EURO) for a smarthopne with capacity of 16 GB, costing 1000 PLN
